Their function is to remove from irrigation water "suspended solids" that are liable to settle in piping or clog the water passages in drippers, micro-jets and other irrigation accessories.

Filtration enables the efficient use of all types of irrigation water. Filtration systems consist of the following types of filters.

- Gravel filters (media filters)
- Screen filters
- Disk filters

We have a huge product range to suit all your needs, from domestic drinking water to the dirtiest irrigation water around, we can supply you will the best filter for the job to give you the cleanest water needed.